

All High Chatter

By Barbara Fink

Hi there!

"Ship Ahoy!" The "S.S. Incredible" is preparing to leave Wakefield High on March 25, and is bound for such countries as Hawaii, China, South Africa, Italy, France and Scotland.

Mrs. Irene Fox, speech teacher at Wakefield, is the captain in charge. Two performances will be held, one at 1:30 p.m. and the other at 8 p.m. Student tickets are 40 cents and admission for adults is 75 cents.

"Dennis the Menace" played by a pre-primary student at Wakefield is the hilarious feature of the show. Other features of the 95-student cast are a "Hawaiian War Chant," which will be done by the Hawaiian Girls, an old Irish favorite, "Kilarny," sung by Ray Reagen and a German immigrant portrayed by Mike Friedman.

Sock Parade

A sock parade and prizes are all part of the Wakefield S.R.C. (Senior Recreation Club) dance which will be held at Wakefield Saturday, March 26, from 8 to 11 p.m. The dress will be school clothes and gaily decorated socks, of course. Ninth graders are invited, though the dance is usually just for 10th and 11th graders.

Selections from "Carousel," the famous Negro spiritual, "Dry Bones," and favorite folk songs from way back such as "Pretty Little Miss," "Stodola Pump" and "Skip to My Lou" are just a few of the numbers which the Masser Mixed Chorus at Washington-Lee will sing at the school's annual Choral Concert.

Over 350 students, singing in the Choir, Massed Mixed Chorus and the Girls' Chorus will participate in the performance which will be presented this Friday night, March 25, at 8:30 p.m. in the main auditorium.
